

EDUCATION (EDUC)

---

EDUC 4250 Credits: 3*Foundations of Online Teaching Total Hours: 45

This course exposes learners to a wide variety of adult learning theories, learning with technologies, and relevant principles and processes that are the foundation of online teaching and learning.

Prior Learning Assessment is available.

EDUC 4251 Credits: 3*Develop & Design Online Learn Total Hours: 45

This course introduces participants to the principles and approaches for designing and developing online learning. Participants will design and develop a module or learning activity for a course of participant's choosing.

Pre-requisite(s): PIDP 3210, PIDP 3230, EDUC 4250

Prior Learning Assessment is available.

EDUC 4252 Credits: 3*Facilitating Online Learning Total Hours: 45

This course gives students the opportunity to develop and facilitate an online lesson. Following the lesson, students will reflect on feedback from lesson participants to evaluate own performance. Students will participate in and give feedback to their peers' online lessons.

Prior Learning Assessment is available.